Men and survivors of sexual violence

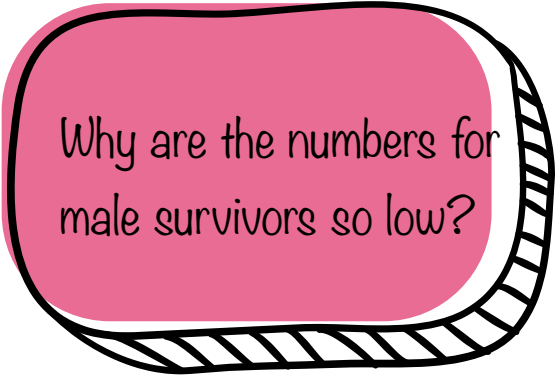

According to BRAIN

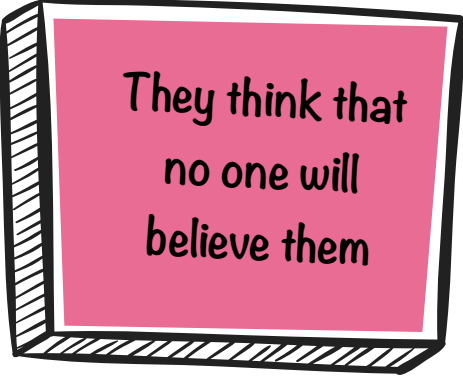

not

Why are the numbers for male survivors so low?

They think that no one will believe them

They think their report will be ignored

They believe it is a personal matter

They're scared of retaliation from their abuser

They think their experience is not important enough to report

Next

Statistics can't accurately report the number of men who are survivors because of the low number of men who report
